

Mendocino County Superior Court Self-Help Legal Access Center

Project Attorney to run Self-Help Clinic in Ft. Bragg, Friday June 8

Located inside the Courthouse Law Library the clinic provides information and assistance with case procedure and forms in the following areas of law:

- Domestic Violence Restraining Orders
- Civil Harassment Restraining Orders (including Elder Abuse and Workplace Violence)
- Guardianship Petitions
- Visitation Petitions for Grandparents
- Name Changes
- Adoptions and
- Small Claims advice

The SHLA Center cannot assist you with criminal matters, immigration nor unlawful Detainers.

The SHLA Center helps self-represented litigants navigate the court system and refers people to community-based resources that can help them with a variety of needs. Because the SHLA Center sees both sides in cases, and must remain neutral, it cannot give legal advice, nor is there any attorney-client relationship developed in the center. Those needing legal advice may be referred to Mendocino's pro bono panel and non-profit legal services programs, if qualified.

THE MENDOCINO COUNTY SELF-HELP CENTER IS FUNDED BY THE EQUAL ACCESS PROGRAM IN COLLABORATION WITH LEGAL SERVICES OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA ("LSNC"). DUE TO GRANT CONDITIONS, INDIVIDUAL CONSULTATION WITH THE LSNC ATTORNEY IS LIMITED TO INDIVIDUALS MEETING CITIZENSHIP AND FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS*.
